ORDER:

Whereas, the Government servants specified below are jointly concerned in a disciplinary case relating to certain complaints against staff working in Vijayawada-I Division and to certain allegations of obtaining information from ESI on supplies of medicines and surgical goods to ESI Hospitals, by not communicating the information to other Divisions and other State Tax Departments, by not taking proper action on the information relating to execution of works contracts by water user associations under Neeru-Chettu program of the Government, by not taking the cases forward to their logical end and by not levying penalty and interest in cases of suppression of sales and taxes examined under Sections 67, 70 and 71 of the GST Act. The intelligence wing did not bring to the notice of superior officers the updated status of the cases being dealt with by the Intelligence Wing. They did not pursue several cases for which Distribution Register numbers were taken by the Intelligence Wing. The actions and inactions of the intelligence wing of Vijayawada-I Division resulted in revenue loss of around Rs.100 crore to the State exchequer.
